

Holland America Line Hosts Luncheon in Tampa on ms Veendam for the America Red Cross

February 2, 2016

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 2, 2016 — On Sunday, Jan. 31, 2016, at Tampa, Fla., Holland America Line hosted a luncheon aboard ms Veendam for the local chapter of the American Red Cross, one of the company's community partners.

Following the luncheon and a presentation, guests were invited to tour the ship before disembarking.

"The variety of aid that the American Red Cross is able to provide in times of need is remarkable, and we are honored to host them on board for their annual luncheon," said Orlando Ashford, president of Holland America Line. "We are proud to partner with an organization that has such a tremendous impact both worldwide and on a local level."

The American Red Cross prevents and alleviates human suffering in the face of emergencies by mobilizing the power of volunteers and the generosity of donors.

The Central Florida Region of the American Red Cross serves more than 8 million people. Founded in 1917, 36 years after the founding of the American Red Cross, the local Tampa chapter provides food and shelter in emergencies, assists members of the armed forces and their families, teaches lifesaving skills and more. All American Red Cross disaster assistance is free, made possible by voluntary donations of time and money from the American people.

"Without community partners like Holland America Line, our chapter of the American Red Cross would not be able to impact the lives of so many people," said Linda Jorge Carbone, regional chief executive officer of the American Red Cross Central Florida Region and executive director of the Tampa Bay Chapter. "Thank you to Holland America Line for hosting this event in such a unique and beautiful setting."
