

P&O Cruises Extends GoCatch Partnership Nationwide

April 20, 2018

P&O Cruises has extended its partnership with ride-sharing phenomenon GoCatch nationwide following a successful pilot scheme in Brisbane earlier this year.

Guests departing on cruises of up to six-nights from any of P&O's Australian homeports will receive a $50 GoCatch credit per room to go from home to port. For cruises of seven nights or longer the credit increases to $100 GoCatch credit per room.

The new point-to-point service is a key feature of P&O's new 3 x Free Sale which also includes up to $300 onboard spending money and a daily scoop of New Zealand Natural Ice Cream available on all bookings made before June 5, 2018.

P&O Cruises Vice President of Sales and Marketing Ryan Taibel said the GoCatch partnership had proved to be a success in Queensland and was being rolled out across the country to make a P&O cruise holiday even more convenient for guests.

"Like P&O Cruises, GoCatch is committed to providing our guests with top-notch travel experiences. Following the positive feedback from the Brisbane launch, we knew there would be an appetite for the service amongst guests in other cities who are looking to make their trip from home-to-terminal as smooth as possible," Mr Taibel said.

With 58,000 drivers nationwide, GoCatch offers passengers transport options that range from economy private vehicles, taxis and maxis through to premium, luxury rides.

GoCatch CEO Andrew Campbell said the popular transport service was dedicated to transporting Australians in the most efficient and seamless way possible.

"GoCatch gives you access to Australia's largest combined fleet of taxis and private vehicles while bringing new value to our customers through partnerships like P&O Cruises," Mr Campbell said.

"P&O Cruises' guests will continue to enjoy the added benefit of being able to book ahead with 'GoCatch Advance Bookings' for the peace of mind of a scheduled pickup with a no surge pricing guarantee."
